

GOOD FAITH DEPOSIT for TRAVEL SERVICES

Our agency requires a Good Faith Deposit from prospective clients. We, as agents, are providing a service and is offering our travel expertise to ensure you get the best travel arrangements. After our initial discussion and you agree to work with me, my agency charges a good faith deposit to initiate the process.

Our payment structure is as follows:

- (1) Booking Travel within the US – $50
- (2) Booking Travel within the Caribbean - $75
- (3) Booking Travel Overseas (All Countries) - $100
- (4) Group Travel - $200
- (5) Destination Weddings - $300

Once the research has begun and pricing is acquired, a proposal will be sent to you with an ending date. You will have until this date to make a decision to book your package. If this date expires and you do not book at this time, your GFD expires, and is non-refundable. If the booking process is started over again, a new GFD is required.

By signing below, you are in Agreement with the Terms above.
